Mrs. Stanley Price of Salt Lake is visiting in this city.

There is a new baby boy at the John O. Davis household.

Mrs. J. W. Loofboarow left Saturday morning for Castle Gate for the hospital.

A boy was born last week to the wife of the Jap. Yasochi, the well known Price vegetable man.

The Standard Bearers company will meet Monday, March 9th at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon. Hazel Cleveland is the hostess.

On account of a two weeks' sickness Ed Johnstone has been delayed in leaving for his new field with the Tennessee Iron & Railway company, but plans to go in the immediate future.

The opening spring party given last night in the city hall by Mrs. Carl Gunderson, Mrs. Matt Gilmour and Mrs. J. J. Wegman was one of the particularly happy social events of the new season. Even Lauber caught the spirit of the occasion and Virginia Reeled with the best of 'em. About thirty couples were present and everyone enjoyed the excellent music of the Eko theater orchestra until 1 o'clock Thursday morning. Fruit punch was served.

Eye Glasses

Did you ever stop and think the way you are overtaxing your eyes? You are forcing them to work, although they are calling for help.

Maybe they burn or feel dry.

Maybe they water and the tears roll down your cheeks.

Maybe they cause your head to ache.

And if you really knew, they are the cause of a good many of your ills.

The cost of eye glasses that are guaranteed to relieve trouble only cost from $3.50 to $15, according to your condition.

Harry Gessas returned the first of the week from a trip to California. He was in the Los Angeles section when the severe floods occurred and was a witness to the millions of dollars damage done by the elements two weeks ago.

According to a report from Helper Mrs. M. P. Bergers and Barney Bergers, wife and brother of Mike Bergers, the well known and well-to-do merchant, have left the community together and were last heard of in Ogden. Mrs. Bergers took her child with her.

The Southern Utah railway boys are provoked over a recent inscription in the Carbon County News that they were moved to Hawatha because of gambling in Price, as they feel that their habits are too exemplary to even have the suggestion made that they ever "frolic on the green."—C. H. A.

Tony Perry was down from Helper the first of the week. Tony is pulling off a twenty-round, go on the 21st of the month which promises to be one of the liveliest boxing contests in the history of the county. Many from here will attend as well as a large number from the camps near Helper.

Boronia met with Mrs. Fred L. Watrous Friday, February 27th, and listened to a very interesting paper by Mrs. Thos. Fouts, and a splendid talk on temperance by Miss Frida A. Drensd. The club is to meet March 13th with Mrs. Fouts, and Mrs. Hoffmann is the leader, having for her subject "Woman's Sphere." Responding to the roll call the members will each give the name of a noted woman.

The parents of Dr. A. C. Sorenson, who have been visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Sorenson this winter, returned to their home at Fountain Green Friday of last week. They enjoyed a pleasant visit in Price and have nothing but good words for the people they met and the kindness and hospitality extended them. Mr. Sorenson was especially complimentary of the old folks' party given by Mr. and Mrs. Milburn recently.

Southern Utah railway men, H. E. Good, J. M. Riley, J. S. Sax, W. W. Olson, J. W. Jackson, M. Cunningham, Roy Russell, C. H. Archer, and E. B. C. H. Archer and wife of Black Hawk were visitors here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Archer have just completed the building of a fine residence on their Eighth street property and plan to erect several dwellings there during the summer.

HAD CHANCE TO BE A GOOD BLACKSMITH

ed, "About what time do you commence your argument?" "I don't know as I will appear at all," he replied. "I won't if Sanford covers the field." "But," we vouchsafed, "won't your constituents be disappointed? After you having billed yourself for the big show from Salt Lake to Price won't they expect you to put in appearance at the critical moment?" "O, I'll put in my appearance all right, possibly not in accordance with the ideas of The Advocate, but I will be there at the proper time."

He was.
The time was when he attempted (we say attempted advisedly, a better word would be flunked) to answer that legal warrior, Ferd Erickson, in the denunciations of Scarpino, otherwise known as Flori, against the Utah Fuel company and several of its officials.

Oliver arose, and naturally everyone expected him to say something. Oliver opened his mouth and the spectators were quite sure that articulation would follow in a moment. A close inspection, however, disclosed the fact that through some unforeseen manner Oliver's Adam's apple in attempting to pass the larynx had become hopelessly involved and it was only through the kindly assistance of Attorney Sanford that the disarrangement was repaired even to a slight degree.

But, gentle reader, "the quality of mercy is not strained," and we are beginning to feel like you did on that Friday afternoon when one of the pupils made his bow and then retired. We will drop the curtain with the simple announcement that finally Oliver ruthlessly soiled his unoffending hat and stalked in disdain from the court room.

Franklin S. Spaulding, Episcopal bishop of the diocese of Utah, preached at the Methodist church to a good sized audience Wednesday evening. While here he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Goeltz. The bishop and Dr. Goeltz were friends as young men in Erie, Pa.

Commencing with the first of this month the Wells-Fargo Express Co. began handling all express matter over the Southern Utah and Castle Valley roads in the regular way and express will be handled promptly to all points south on these lines.

Monday evening there was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Pace the tin wedding anniversary of their son, Albert, to Miss Ada Cotton of St. George. There were present many prominent residents of Price, including Mayor and Mrs. Carl Gunderson, Professor and Mrs. Carl H. Marquess, Principal and Mrs. F. B. Davies and many others. Cards were dispensed with, the evening being devoted to music, Professor Paulsen being in charge of this feature of the entertainment. At a late hour refreshments were served that would make a king rejoice, and that many more such social events may follow was the sentiment expressed by all present.

Counting Molecules.
A French mathematician has tried to convey to our minds some notion of the infinitesimal size of the molecules. He declares that if a person were to try to count the number of molecules in a cubic millimeter of hydrogen gas, taking one-billionth of a second to repeat each number, the task would occupy him for more than 1,000 years.—Youth's Companion.

True Courtesy.
Nothing is a courtesy unless it be meant for us, and that friendly and lovingly. We owe no thanks to rivers, that they carry our boats, or winds, that they be favoring, and fill our sails; or meats that they be nourishing; for these are what they are, necessarily. Horses carry us; trees shade us; but they know it not.—Ben Jonson.

Evidently Wouldn't Talk.
In the Belfast (Ireland) custody court a constable stated that when arrested the previous evening a prisoner said: "I'll say nothing till the morning, and then I'll get my solicitor to say it for me."
